0 014 206 126 0

.42
H6
by 1

CATALOGUE

LOAN EXHIBITION

OF HISTORICAL OBJECTS

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE

Historical Society of Burlington County

MOORESTOWN, NEW JERSEY

November 23d and 24th, 1911

PRICE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS

CATALOGUE

LOAN EXHIBITION

OF HISTORICAL OBJECTS

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE

Historical Society of Burlington County

MOORESTOWN, NEW JERSEY

November 23d and 24th, 1911

F142
.B9H6

GIFT
Society
MAR 12 1915

Historical Society of Burlington County

Founded February 28, 1908

OFFICERS

President, George Cuthbert Gillespie
Vice-President, William R. Lippincott
Curator, Asa Matlack Stackhouse, M. D.
Recording Secretary, William D. Lippincott
Corresponding Secretary, William Foster Reeve
Treasurer, William H. Roberts

LOAN EXHIBITION COMMITTEE

Francis B. Lee, Chairman, Vincentown
Mrs. Philip Bakley, Bordentown
Mrs. Smith Champion, Jobstown
Benjamin W. Cooper, Moorestown
Henry S. Haines, Burlington
George M. Hillman, Moorestown
John P. Hutchinson, Georgetown
Henry J. Irick, Vincentown
Miss Gertrude Jones, Delanco
Hon. E. B. Leaming, Moorestown
Miss Mary McKeen, Moorestown
John D. McMullin, Moorestown
J. Whitall Nicholson, Moorestown
Wm. F. Reeve, Moorestown
Caleb S. Ridgeway, Lumberton
Wm. H. Roberts, Moorestown
William Slaughter, Mount Holly
E. Robert Stackhouse, Moorestown
Dr. Joseph Stokes, Moorestown
Walter P. Stokes, Moorestown
Harold B. Wells, Bordentown

WOMEN'S COMMITTEE

Miss Mary McKeen, Chairwoman, Moorestown
Mrs. Smith Champion, Jobstown
Mrs. J. L. Clarkson, Beverly
Mrs. Charles Folwell, Mt. Holly
Mrs. Caleb Ridgeway, Lumberton
Miss Elizabeth Lippincott, Colestown
Mrs. Francis Lee, Vincentown
Mrs. William Foster Reeve, Moorestown
Mrs. Clement Hopkins, Moorestown
Mrs. William Hooton, Moorestown
Miss Martha Hollinshead, Moorestown
Mrs. William Roberts, Moorestown
Mrs. William D. Lippincott, Moorestown
Miss Walton, Moorestown
Mrs. William R. Lippincott, Moorestown
Miss Cadbury, Moorestown
Mrs. Emmor Roberts, Moorestown

CATALOGUE

No. 1. George Abbott, 228 East Central Avenue, Moorestown, N. J.

Large pewter platter, marked R. R. 1749. Rachel Roberts, who married Joshua Dudley.

Woman's broad-brimmed felt hat, about 1790. Very broad brim and low crown, thought to have been used for a riding hat.

No. 2. Gilbert Aitken, Moorestown, N. J.

One shilling note, 1776. Printed in Burlington, N. J., by Isaac Collins.

Poor Richard Almanacs, 1759, etc. Printed and sold by B. Franklin and D. Hall, Philadelphia.

Deed for two slaves, 1808. Richard Merrell, of Chester Township, conveys to Peter King, of the same place, a certain Negro wench and child for $90.

Padlock, made and used in Moorestown about 1840.

Wooden lock from an old house in Moorestown, made about 1775.

Sickle used in Burlington County about 75 years ago.

Reticule, about 100 years old.

Copper scales, date unknown.

Small basket, made for Miss Mary Venable, by Indians while encamped on the Slim farm, in 1805.

Spectacles worn in 1825 by Robert Heaton, grandfather of George Heaton, present tax assessor of Chester Township.

Swedish Bible, 1688. Brought to New Jersey by an early settler.

Candlestick, from the old Cox Tavern, which was built about 1750 on the lot adjoining Matlack Company's store.

No. 3. Emily H. Atkinson, Moorestown, N. J.

Blue and white homespun coverlid, spun and made by granddaughter of John Hart, one of the signers of Declaration of Independence.

Lustre bowl, date unknown.

No. 4. Mrs. David G. Baird, Beverly, N. J.

Candlestick, made from timber from "H. B. M. Frigate Augusta," sunk in Delaware River at the battle of Red Bank, October 22, 1777.

No. 5. Miss Blanche R. Black, Vincentown, N. J.

Left-handed sickle, marked "T. B., 1830, T. W. B." Belonged to Thomas Black, and used on the Oneanickon Farm, Burlington County.

No. 6. Robert Brown, Vincentown, N. J.

Deed for 50 acres, reciting Indian title at Edgepelick, from 1758 to 1810. Grantors, Barzillai Brannin and Susannah, his wife, of Evesham, to Aaron Bozarth, of Northampton, September 8, 1810.

Deed for land "situate at a place called New Brandewine," in Northampton Township, heading of Wading River. Dated February 25, 1797. The grantors, Abram Jones and Elizabeth, his wife, of Northampton. Grantee, Arney Lippincott.

No. 7. Mrs. Jacob Buist, Moorestown, N. J.

Candle stand, mahogany, about 1833.

Chippendale table, mahogany, straight legs, inlaid drawer, 1780.

No. 8. Mrs. Minnie Oliphant Butterworth, Vincentown, N. J.

Memorial Sampler, about 1820. Size in frame 40 x 43 inches. Done by Hannah Ann Wood, aged 9. (A splendid specimen.)

Glazed pottery, yellow ware, probably 1800. A superb set, tall teapot, sugar, etc.

No. 9. Georgeanna Buzby, 5 East Prospect Avenue, Moorestown, N. J.

Sampler, worked by Esther Haines Buzby in 1813.

Sampler, worked by Esther Lukens in 1790.

Stoneware cream jug, 1750. Property of Sarah Lukens, mother of Edith Lukens, who was grandmother of Sarah D. Buzby.

Meat platter, 1825. Property of George and Esther Buzby, parents of Mark H. Buzby.

Gun that has been in the Buzby family one hundred years. Was originally flint lock.

Warming pan, 1775. Property of Rebecca Matlack Buzby, grandmother of Mark H. Buzby.

No. 10. Miss Cadbury, Moorestown, N. J.

Bureau.

No. 11. Miss Mary V. Campion, Mount Holly, N. J.

Sampler worked by exhibitor's mother in 1813.

Silver luster pitcher, about 100 years old. Property of exhibitor's grandmother, Hannah Lippincott Woolston.

Sampler, worked by exhibitor's grandmother in 1785.

Sampler, worked by exhibitor's mother in 1813.

Wooden goblet made from a piece of the tree under which William Penn made his treaty with the Indians.

No. 11A. Harry Chambers, Moorestown, N. J.

Coin collection.

Indian collection, from a stone fishing hook to an Indian plow.

Bronze ornament, five inches long, picked up at Centreton, N. J., 4½ feet below the surface, in molding sand.

Shark's tooth, found on farm of Mrs. William Paul.

Fossil, found by Thomas Middlemiss in the clay pit at William Reeve's brickyard, Lenola, N. J., 60 feet below the surface.

No. 12. Mrs. J. Lindsay Clarkson, Beverly, N. J.

Grapevine-pattern quilt, 1806, made by Ann Chambers, near Moorestown, N. J.

Sampler, 1838, made by Ann Eliza Kain, near Moorestown, N. J.

Wallet, 1765, owned by Richard Borden, who was born 1753.

No. 13. Mrs. Joseph Collins, Wrightstown, N. J.

Peacock feather pelerine, owned and worn by Dolly Madison.

Counterpane, previous to 1800, made by ancestor of exhibitor.

No. 14.—Nathan H. Conrow, Riverton, N. J.

Deed, 1760, covering a tract of land containing 600 acres, including (as far as the marks given can now be followed) the land now owned by Ellis Rudderow, Edmund S. Holmes and Nathan H. Conrow.

No. 15. Benjamin W. Cooper, Moorestown, N. J.

One pewter porringer, 1837, used at Westtown Boarding School, Westtown, Pa.

Indian hatchet, found near Columbus, N. J.

Oval box made from the old Penn Treaty Elm, owned by Clayton Cooper, formerly of Ellisburg, N. J.

Wooden scoop shovel, from Mount Laurel, N. J., 100 years old.

Crane with two pots and holders, bought at a sale near Mount Laurel by Clayton Cooper; 100 years old.

Newspaper—"The General Advertiser," published in 1814, in Philadelphia; property of Nathan F. Cowen, Merchantville, N. J.

Bull's eye watch, belonging to Benjamin B. Cooper, great-grandfather of exhibitor; about 1800.

Silver mounted horse pistol, dropped by robbers in yard of Benjamin B. Cooper, Pavonia, N. J., 1845

No. 16. Mrs. Anna P. C. Cowperthwait.

Odd pennies used in United States previous to 1850.

No. 17. Joseph Croshaw, Wrightstown, N. J.

Spectacles, about 1770, made at Jobstown, N. J., worn by Mercy Horner, a prominent minister of the Society of Friends, about 1770.

No. 18. Alfred Darnell, Moorestown, N. J.

Glass.

No. 19. George De Cou, Moorestown, N. J.

Table.

Cannonball or grape shot, picked up on the battlefield of Monmouth Court House.

Bayonet picked up on the battlefield at Trenton.

Old Dutch tile, taken from the house in which Col. Rahl died after the battle of Trenton.

Cut glass wineglass, which was the property of Jos. Bonaparte, which was sold at a sale of the Bonaparte effects in Bordentown in 1837. I purchased this glass from Dr. Hutchinson, of Crosswicks, who personally bought it at the sale, and informed me that the auctioneer announced that it was given to Jos. Bonaparte by his brother, Napoleon.

Warming pan, which has been in exhibitor's family at least 100 years.

Old sampler, bearing the date 1828.

Collection of Indian ax heads and arrow points.

No. 20. Almer J. Earl, Pemberton, N. J.

Indian deed, dated April 28, 1703, for land that is now in the Borough of Pemberton.

Indian stone pipe, found by Franklin W. Earl on his farm, near Pemberton, in the year 1846.

Treasury note, Borough of Pemberton, loan of June 17, 1837, for 25 cents; signed by Wm. Malsbury, Treas.

Three-shilling note, twelve-shilling note, one-shilling note, all printed in Burlington in 1776 by Isaac Collins.

No. 21. Mrs. Marie Bryan Eayre, Vincentown, N. J.

India mull silver embroidered gown, worn in 1837 at the wedding of Rebecca Burr, of Vincentown, to Capt. Guy Bryan, Sr., of Philadelphia. The wedding occurred in the Burr homestead at Vincentown.

Two French veils of the period of 1830, worn by Mrs. Rebecca Burr, of Vincentown.

"Job Jones—His Book," an arithmetic of the "period of agitation," between the French and Indian Wars and Revolution, by Capt. Geo. S. Eayre, of Vincentown.

India mull gown, worn in 1837 at the wedding of Rebecca Burr to Capt. Guy Bryan, Sr., of Philadelphia. This wedding occurred in the Burr homestead at Vincentown.

Pink silk dancing slippers, worn about 1830.

Box used for stocks and handkerchiefs by Guy Bryan, of Philadelphia and Vincentown. Made by Thomas Pearson, of Market Street, Philadelphia.

Bead reticule, made by Euphemia Reading, daughter of Governor John Reading, and wife of Maj. Barzillai Newbold, of the Revolution. Loaned by exhibitor's great-great-granddaughter.

Cambric repousse, bureau cover, made by Mary Newbold, daughter of Major Barzillai Newbold and Euphemia Reading Newbold. This cover was made about 1815, from patterns designed by the maker.

No. 22. Mrs. Charles H. Engle, Mount Holly, N. J.

Copy book of Caroline Horner, of Mullica Hill, Gloucester County. 1838, used at Anthony Sharp's School, Mount Holly, N. J.

Penna. Packet and Daily Advertiser. Tuesday, 1784.

Poor Robin's Almanac, 1822.

No. 23. Joseph S. Evans, Marlton, N. J.

Indian deed, 6th day of 8th month, 1701. A deed of 1000 acres of land between exhibitor's ancestor William Evans and Hinson, an Indian king.

An Indian dish and numerous arrow heads and axes. The dish is of soapstone, about one foot across, and was unearthed in Shamong Township while digging a cellar.

No. 24. W. Henry Evans, 244 West Main Street, Moorestown, N. J.

Evans' family Bible. "Bishop's Bible," printed about 1572. Size when opened 25½ x 15½ inches. "Thomas Evans (Evens). His Bible, which I give to my son and grandsons and not to be sold, but to go from one family to another as they have a mind to reede in it, and then to return it to the oldest son or grandson and to be keept in good order." The above copied from a note written in the Bible by Thomas Evans (Evens), who was the son of William Evans (Evens), who emigrated to America about the year 1682 and settled in a cave near Evesham Meeting House, Mount Laurel, N. J.

William Evans' will and probate, 1728.

No. 25. George Cuthbert Gillespie, Woodverge, Moorestown, N. J.

Commission of John Groves as Lieutenant of Foot Militia, Philadelphia, dated 1755.

Copper sun dial, about 1760, originally belonged to John Mifflin Jones.

Embroidered silk court suit, about 1765. Worn at the court of France.

Advertisement of sale of fruit trees at Burlington, 1808.

Brick from the Samuel Coles Mansion at "Deer Park," near Ellisburg, N. J., built in 1743, and still standing.

First Philadelphia directory.

Sword of Capt. Anthony Cuthbert, carried by him at the battles of Trenton and Princeton and throughout the Revolutionary War.

Armchair, brought over in the "Welcome" by David Ogden, in 1682.

Wine glass, very old, date unknown.

Masonic papers of Thomas Gillespie, 1811.

Masonic papers of John Gillespie, 1818.

Commitment to the House of Correction of a Negro servant of George Ogden, 1794.

Bill for medical attendance and amputating leg of Joseph Ogden, Jr., 1785.

Printed notes, unsigned, used for convenience, in place of cash, for making change by the ferryman at the Middle Ferry, Schuylkill River, Philadelphia, 1777.

Diploma of the Bordentown, N. J., Academy to Thomas (L.) Gillespie, dated 1838.

Certificate of stock of the Schuylkill and Susquehanna Navigation Co., signed by Robert Morris, as president, 1792. Transferred on the back to Joseph Ogden.

General Humpton's gold "bull's eye" watch, about 1765.

Rush bottom chairs, about 1830.

Old brass candlestick, date unknown.

Silver "bull's eye" watch, formerly owned by Thomas L. Gillespie, 1839.

No. 26. Mrs. Francis B. Gummere, Haverford, Pa.

Watch, "bull's eye," silver, 1750 (or earlier). Belonged to Samuel Smith, of Burlington, N. J., historian.

"History of New Jersey," 1765, first edition, by Samuel Smith; printed in Burlington by James Parker, King's printer.

Padlock for trunk, 1807 (or earlier), fastening to trunk of Stephen Grellet, of Burlington, N. J., on his missionary tours in Russia and Austria, etc.

Autograph letter of John Woolman, 1772, to Elizabeth Smith, of Burlington, N. J., in regard to her carved furniture, etc. Had a "stop in his mind" when he signed her certificate from the meeting setting her clear to preach.

Certificate of Elizabeth Smith, referred to in above letter.

No. 27. Martha H. Hollinshead, Moorestown, N. J.

Andirons, date unknown; iron, hand wrought.

Mirror, small, mahogany.

No. 28. Mrs. William Hooton, Moorestown, N. J.

Flint-lock gun, carried by Col. Joseph Hugg in the Revolutionary War.

Highboy.

No. 29. Mrs. J. Clement Hopkins, Jr., Moorestown, N. J.

Letter, written at Valley Forge by Gen. Washington to Col. Bradford, March 15, 1778.

Chair, 150 years old.

Two brass candlesticks.

Linen bed cover, blue and white.

Silver spectacles, came down from Elizabeth Haddon, 150 years old.

No. 30. Mrs. Florence S. Hunt, Moorestown, N. J.

Letter from George Washington, dated December 28, 1778, directed to Benjamin Franklin, Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States at Versailles. A letter in reference to the distinguished character and services of Marquis Lafayette.

Letter written in London, February 24, 1766, by Benjamin Franklin to Joseph Fox, Esq., Honorable Speaker of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania, and is in relation to the repeal of the Stamp Act.

Large collection of Continental money in excellent state of preservation.

No. 31. Mrs. Franklin Paul Jones, Riverbank, Delanco, N. J.

Sword, Revolutionary. Steel, with gilt trimmings and bone handle, used by Richard Jones, ancestor of exhibitor.

Flint-lock gun, 1800.

Three cream-colored plates, red and green decoration, 18th century, made by Adams, a pupil of Wedgwood.

Copper luster Chariot pitcher, about 100 years old.

Small copper luster flower decoration, about 100 years old.

Helmet pitcher, white, with flower decorations. Lowestoft, 18th century.

No. 32. Francis Bazley Lee, Vincentown, N. J.

Letter from Samuel R. Gummere, educator of Burlington city. This was written November 17, 1837, to Timothy Abbott, of Trenton, and relates to affairs of New Jersey State Prison.

Letter of William Griffith, of Burlington city, distinguished lawyer, to Garret Dorset Wall, of Trenton, prominent jurist. Letter dated September 11, 1823.

Legal letter of John Lawrence, lawyer, father of Captain James Lawrence, of "Don't Give up the Ship" fame. This letter was addressed to William Churchill Houston, a conspicuous member of the New Jersey Bar. The communication is dated May 19, 1785.

Letter from Henry Paxon, of Mt. Holly, recommending Hezekiah Calvin, school teacher, at Brotherton (Indian Mills). Calvin, who was of the family of Bartholomew S. Calvin (Wilted Grass), an Indian, and Princeton College graduate. Letter dated February, 1771.

Letter from Col. John Cox to Charles Pettit about naval operations at Little Egg Harbor Inlet, Foxborough and Chestnut Neck. Written at Batsto, June 13, —— (?).

Petition of 26 inhabitants of Nottingham, Burlington County, regarding rebuilding of Trenton Bridge, over the Assunpink, to be built at the joint expense of Burlington and Hunterdon Counties. Received by the Legislature November 10, 1742.

Autographs of officers of Second Regiment (Revolutionary Militia, New Jersey), Israel Shreve, of Burlington County, commanding, 1781.

Deed, August 18, 1693, from George Hutchinson, of Burlington, to Henry Burr, of Burlington, both founders of their respective families, for 100 acres of land in West New Jersey. Recorded, Liber, B, fol. 486, West Jersey Records, office Secretary of State, Trenton.

Order upon Treasurer by Governor William Livingston for £275, six months' salary as Governor. Dated in Council, Burlington city, May 28, 1787.

Original copy of Leaming & Spicer's "Grants and Concessions," published 1758, and containing West Jersey "Concessions and Agreements" and legislation, 1676-1702.

No. 33. Mrs. Sara Stretch Eayre Lee, Vincentown, N. J.

Gown of Chinese importation, worn by Miss Stretch at the "Meschienza," Philadelphia, May, 1778. This gown was torn by the sword of a British officer when Major Andre announced the possible approach of the Americans across the Schuylkill River.

Gown of Bouche silk grenadine, Chinese importation, worn by Miss Stretch at the "Meschienza," Philadelphia, during the Anglo-Hessian occupation of the city, May, 1778.

No. 34. Granville W. Leeds, Rancocas, N. J.

Deed, 1685, given by Samuel Jennings to John Woolman, the first, for 200 acres.

No. 35. Tacie Albertson Lippincott, Moorestown, N. J.

Fireplace fixings.

Silver cream pitcher, 1816, a part of Tacy Jarrett Stokes' wedding outfit.

Sugar tongs, marked R. B., 1770, a part of Rachel Burrough Pine's wedding outfit.

Miniature, 1760. Charles Wadsworth, a great-grandson of Nicholas Scull, the first Surveyor General of the Province of Pennsylvania.

Knee buckle, 1720, owned by John Lukens, grandfather of Tacy Jarrett Stokes, wife of Charles Stokes, of Rancocas, N. J.

Cream pitcher, 1720. Tacy Jarrett Stokes inherited this cream pitcher from her grandmother, Jane Scull Lukens.

No. 36. Mrs. William D. Lippincott, Moorestown, N. J.

Cradle.

No. 37. Mrs. Joseph H. Matlack, Moorestown.

Table, 1736.

No. 38. Wallace McGeorge, M. D., 521 Broadway, Camden, N. J.

Deed from Francis Davenport to Jacob Doughty, November 2, 1714, for 315 acres in Chesterfield

Township, Burlington County, with lease for one year.

No. 39. Miss Mary McKeen, Moorestown, N. J.
Glass.

No. 40. Anna A. Mickle, Moorestown, N. J.

Candle. This stand belonged to Thomas and Rebecca Evans, who were married in 1730.

Sampler worked by Mary Laurie, near Crosswicks, N. J., in 1786.

Sampler worked by Mary Elton, in Burlington, N. J., in 1776.

Sampler worked by Amelia De Cou, in Burlington, N. J., in 1809.

Sampler worked by Rebecca Thomas, at Burlington, N. J., 1805.

Tortoise-shell case, silver-mounted, belonging to David Thomas, of Burlington, N. J., dated 1811.

Two silver cups, made by Nathaniel Coleman, silversmith, of Burlington, N. J., bearing dates of 1811 and 1822.

Piece of brocade wedding dress of Annie Murfin, who married Thomas Laurie at Chesterfield Meeting House, near Crosswicks, N. J., and whose father, Robert Murfin, with his wife and children, arrived at Burlington, N. J., 10th month, 1678, on the ship Shield, Daniel Towers, Capt.

Silk globe, showing map of the world, made by Amelia De Cou, of Burlington, N. J., about 1814; also silk work bag belonging to the same.

Drawing of Friends' Meeting House, Burlington, taken about 1786-7.

No. 41. Hannah E. Moore, Moorestown, N. J.

Candle. This stand belonged to Thomas and Rebecca Evans, who were married in 1730.

No. 42. Henry W. Moore, Moorestown, N. J.

Sun dial, with name of Henry Warinton and date 1726, made by Philip Roman, engraved on it. Henry Warrington was born in England and came to Philadelphia in 1700, bought 400 acres of land in Chester Township and married Elizabeth Austen in 1719.

No. 43. William S. Moore, Moorestown, N. J.

Combination ink horn and penknife, owned by Thomas Warrington, who was born in 1725, and married Mary Roberts in 1747.

No. 44. Anthony S. Morris, Pemberton, N. J.

Map of town of New Mills, made by Samuel Smith in 1787. First settled in 1692 as Hampton-Hanover, became New Mills in 1752; incorporated 1826 as Pemberton.

Deed, David Budd to Patrick Reynolds, 1752, with map of mill property attached, showing location of mill house, etc. House still standing; oldest in Borough.

Iron andiron head, probably made by Gen. John Lacey, before 1800. Forge and furnace conducted by him. Lacey was a General in the Revolutionary army and was very prominent in Burlington affairs until his death.

No. 45. Miss Sarah Newbold, Wrightstown, N. J.

China plate, prior to 1777.

No. 46. Mrs. George Nichols, Smithville, N. J.

Silver teaspoon, soup ladle, sugar ladle, made of coin silver and owned by the Braham family, a century ago.

No. 47. Mrs. William M. Paul, Moorestown, N. J.

Silver tankard, about 1720, owned by John and Jane Lukens, great-great-grandparents of exhibitor.

Monogram, J. L. J. S., about 1715. John Lukens was surveyor-general of Pennsylvania, and married Jane Scull, daughter of the famous surveyor, Nicholas Scull, of Pennsylvania.

No. 48. Mrs. Howard Poinsett, Jacobstown, N. J.

China bowl, pitchers and cups, about 1750.

No. 49. Mrs. Samuel Reynolds, Vincentown, N. J.
Needle book, made by Mary Newbold, of Chesterfield.

No. 50. Mrs. Caleb S. Ridgeway, Lumberton, N. J.
Corner washstand.

No. 51. Mrs. Samuel K. Robbins, Moorestown, N. J.
Cut glass decanter, belonged to Thomas Coate, of Pemberton, N. J., 100 years ago.
Sheriton chair, 100 years old.

No. 52. Josiah Rogers, Medford, N. J.
Three Bills of Credit, issued by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and by the three Lower Counties, under the jurisdiction of Pennsylvania.

No. 53. William B. Ross, Vincentown, N. J.
Hat box, covered with decorative paper, belonging to John Ross, of Vincentown. Used for carrying beaver high hats, period of 1820-30.

No. 54. Josephine E. Scattergood, Mount Holly, N. J.
Spear head or dagger, date unknown, dug from farm of Ezra Scattergood, Burlington, N. J.

No. 55. Henry C. Shinn, 35 Main Street, Mount Holly, N. J.

Portrait of Uz Gauntt, painted on wood by his son, Jefferson Gauntt, about 1815. Uz Gauntt refused to allow his portrait to be painted, and the tradition is that the painter was compelled to work secretly, painting from memory, aided by the glimpses he could snatch of his subject through the keyhole in the door. The portrait shows Mr. Gauntt in his habitual position before the fireplace.

Silver spectacles and case belonging to Uz Gauntt and worn by him in portrait mentioned above.

Silver pitcher, a gift at the marriage of Ann Wills and Evan Clement, April 8, 1795.

Silver castor, plated on copper, a gift at the marriage of Ann Wills and Evan Clement, April 8, 1795.

Silver nursing bottle tube, used by each generation of the Shinn family for over a hundred years.

By-Laws of Mount Holly Lodge, No. 18, Free and Accepted Masons. First Masonic lodge instituted in Burlington County, 1820.

Powder horn, made by Isaac Laurie, of Arneytown, in 1818.

Commission of John Blackwood as a Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Burlington County, February 19, 1811.

Commission of John Blackwood as a Justice of the Peace of Burlington County, February 19, 1911. John Blackwood was a Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Burlington County and also a Justice of the Peace from 1811 to 1832, and his commissions during that period are, with one exception, in the possession of the exhibitor.

Articles of apprenticeship of an inmate of the Burlington County Poorhouse to John Blackwood "to learn the art, trade and mystery of housekeeping," October 21, 1820.

Blackwood family Bible. Printed at London, in 1708. Two pages missing. Contains records of the Blackwood and Hulings families.

No. 56. Mrs. Ralph Shinn, Jobstown, N. J.

Counterpane, previous to 1800, knit by hand by ancestor of exhibitor.

Pair of candelabra, previous to 1800, pattern of ornamental ironwork on marble stand and encircled by prisms.

China cups and saucers, prior to 1750.

No. 57. Miss M. E. Shreve, Moorestown, N. J.

Brass lamp, burning lard, 125 years old. Belonged to Sallie Coate, of Pemberton, N. J.

No. 58. William A. Slaughter, Mount Holly, N. J.

Letter autograph, July 14, 183-, from President Andrew Jackson to Samuel C. Atkinson, of Mount Holly, an early editor of "The Saturday Evening Post."

Cannonball from the battle of Trenton, December 25, 1776.

Grapeshot from battle of Iron Works Hill, fought at Mount Holly, December 21, 1776.

Powder horn, dress sabre (artillery), Revolutionary War.

Keystone-shaped brick, from mill on Millbrook farm, Rancocas Road. The mill was burned by the British in Revolutionary War. The bricks were laid large ends out, so that the pressure of the earth would lock them in position, like little keystones.

Dragoon pistol, 1814-16.

Bullet mold.

Early American currency, all over 100 years old. "Fips," "levies," copper cents, half-dollars, Continental currency, as well as "hard-time tokens," also 12½ and 50-cent notes, dated 1815, on Farmers' Bank, Mount Holly. Old banknotes, 1809-1850.

No. 59. A. M. Stackhouse, Moorestown, N. J.

Poster of Public Sale of Stock, Farming Implements, etc. Dated August 27, 1808.

A Harpending—a collection of Evangelical hymns, 1799. Mt. Holly imprint, S. C. Ulstick, publisher. This book is not in Nelson's "Check List of the Issues of the New Jersey Press."

Marriage certificate of Thomas Shackle and Alice Stalles, dated December 23, 1686. The marriage took place under the auspices of Newton Monthly Meeting of Quakers, in what was then Gloucester County. Thomas Shackle and wife lived on the farm now owned by Wilmer Collins, on the Old Wriskey Road from Colestown to Merchantville. This is perhaps the oldest certificate extant of any marriage solemnized in West New Jersey.

The Memorable Works of a Son of Thunder and Consolation, Namely of That True Prophet and Faithful Servant of God and Sufferer for the Testimony of Jesus, Edward Burrough. Printed and published for the good and benefit of generations to come in the year 1672. This book was the book plate (?) of Elias and Sarah Farr. They were among the early arrivals in the Burlington colony. Elias Farr was a member of the Council of West New Jersey in 1682 and held other official positions. He was a large landowner.

Contract of Tallaca, Indian chief, with John Roberts, William Matlock and Timothy Hancock to protect them from any other Indians laying claim to lands taken up by them. Dated April 12, 1684.

Honorable discharge of John Powell from Capt French's company, 18th Regiment of Foot, at Halifax, August 1, 1757. John Powell, born 1732, died 1777, was a native of Burlington County and resided at Mount Holly.

Letters of administration granted Susanna Powell, estate of John Powell, March 24, 1777. When the State government was established the Colonial seal of New Jersey ceased to be used. The Legislature authorized Gov. Livingston to use his own private seal as the great seal of the State until a new one should be procured. This document bears Gov. Livingston's private seal.

Marriage license of John Powell and Susanna Briant, both of Burlington County, dated February 18, 1760. This has the autograph of Francis Bernard, Esq., Col. Governor of New Jersey, 1758-60.

Surveyor's Map of that part of Moorestown west of Main street and south of Chester avenue, made by Asa Matlack, circa, 1820.

Deed, Robert Stiles, of Chester, to Simon Clifton, 1708, January 20. Lands in Chester Township.

Deed, Hypolite Lefavor, late of St. Martins-in-the-Field, Middlesex, England, and Mary, his wife, now of Holly-borne, in Township of New Salem, in Fenwick's Colony, to Geo. Provo and wife; 300 acres on Alloways Creek, Salem County, 1679, June 15.

Certificate of appointment of William Willis, coroner of Salem. Signed by Jeremiah Bass. 1711, March 17.

Deed, William Etheridge, of Pool, and Joan, his wife, to John Cowperthwaite, of West Jersey. Lands to be taken up. 1701, November 24.

Deed, Samuel Carpenter, of Philadelphia, and John Cowperthwaite, of Chester Township. Lands to be taken up. 1700, March 13.

John Hill's Map of Philadelphia and Its Environs. "Ten Miles Around the Central Hydrant" (Broad and Market streets), 1808.

No. 60. E. Robert Stackhouse, Moorestown, N. J.

Pincushion. Cover of which, tradition says, was worked by Susanna Hearn at an English school, before she came to this country, in 1680. She married, in 1707, Thomas Brian, Jr., son of Thomas Brian, the immigrant. As far as is known, her life in this country was spent in Burlington County.

Apple Parer, about 1820, probably made by Asa Matlack and used by him. Asa Matlack lived on a farm on the Fellowship-Maple Shade road.

Broomcorn Cutter, about 1820, used for cutting broomcorn in making brooms. Asa Matlack's name stamped on handle.

Iron Pincers, 1811, belonged to Asa Matlack and broomcorn in making brooms. Asa Matlack's handle.

Hoof Parer, about 1820, used to pare horses' hoofs, preparatory to shoeing, in Asa Matlack's blacksmith shop.

Pewterware, between 1800 and 1820. Two large platters, three small plates, mug and vegetable dish.

Bake Iron for griddle cakes, about 1820. Hung by chain from crane over an open fireplace.

Piece of ironwork. Relic of old St. Mary's Church, Colestown. It upheld the sounding board over the pulpit. It was picked up among the ruins the day said church was destroyed by fire, November 8, 1899.

Bellows, about 1810. Two pairs.

Warming Pan, about 1820, belonged to Ann Roberts Stackhouse, grandmother of exhibitor. Came from Wales, early in the 18th century.

Mary Powell, born 1763, died 1841, was the daughter of John Powell, great-grandson of Robert Powell, who came to the Burlington Colony in the ship Kent in 1677. She married Amos Stackhouse at Mount Holly in 1779. She was a native of Burlington County. The following things belonged to her, and most of them date back to the latter part of the 18th century:

Silk Mitts or Gloves. Two pairs.

Fan.

Box.

Silver hook and chain, with pincushion attached.

Needle case and needles.

White silk kerchief.

Teaspoons. Three.

Sampler, Martha Stackhouse, born in Mount Holly, in 1789.

Knitting Sheath, belonged to Tamar Roberts, who became the wife of Asa Matlack, of Chester Township, in 1807.

No. 61. Mrs. M. Newbold Stead, Jacobstown, N. J.

Arm chair, date unknown, belonged to John Woolman, who was an ancestor of exhibitor.

Counterpane, previous to 1700.

No. 62. Mrs. Horace Stokes, Holmesburg, Pa.

Appointment of Moses Kempton, receiver of a port in New Jersey, signed by George Washington and Timothy Pickering.

No. 63. F. G. Stroud, M. D., Moorestown, N. J.

Three lancets used by the late Joseph Warrington, M. D., prior to his settling in Burlington County, in 1850.

Silver watch, owned and carried by John Wallace, of Palmyra, N. J., several years before his death, in 1813.

No. 64. Joseph T. Sullivan, Moorestown, N. J.

Deed, parchment, July 24, 1773, Uriah French, of Chester Township, and Thomas Morton, of Chester Township, for lands in Chester Township.

Will, parchment, June 6, 1760, of Nathan Middleton.

Letters of Administration, June 30, 1760, granted to Mary Middleton on estate of Nathan Middleton. Has the signature of Francis Bernard, Colonial Governor.

Draft of survey of lands in Chester Township for Nathan Middleton, November 18, 1751, signed by William Heulings, Deputy Surveyor.

No. 65. Mary R. Sumner, Moorestown, N. J.

Armed rocking chair, 1692. Property of John and Hannah Sharpless, great-great-great-great-grandfather of exhibitor.

Small rocker, 1790. Property of Mary Knight, great-grandmother of exhibitor. A child cut her initials in back.

Armed chair, walnut, 1750 or earlier. Claw and ball feet.

Small doll, jointed, wooden, about 1750.

Doll, 1840, china head, wooden arms and legs, straw bonnet trimmed with velvet ribbon.

No. 65A. Henry P. Thorn, Medford, N. J.

Deed, written in England, November 1, 1682, William Welsh, merchant of London, to James Gilbert. Conveys 1000 acres of land in the Province of West Jersey.

Deed, William Welsh to James Gilbert, November 2, 1682 (trust deed). Conveys 1000 acres of land in West Jersey. Both deeds refer to the deed made by Sir George Carteret to the trustees of Edward Byllings, July 1, 1676.

Deeds and deeds of gift, 1685, 1720, 1724, 1761, 1763, 1773. Part of Burlington Island, Northampton Township. Deed of trust, land in Evesham, Lower Gloucester Township. Deed of gift, land in Chester Township. Letters of administration, Isaac Stratton's will, signed by Governor Livingstone, July 13, 1781.

Almanacs, 1750-1785.

No. 67. Mrs. William Henry Wallace, Moorestown, N. J.

Doll, 1797, presented to Hannah Marcellus by Gen. Lafayette. Given to owner by Mrs. John Doughty (nee Marcellus).

Collection of china, two bowls, cup and saucer and cream pitcher, 1797. Part of set given to Edward Marcellus, of Trenton, by Gen. Lafayette.

Chair, 1790, from the library of Gen. Washington at Mount Vernon. Given to Capt. John Mann, of Montgomery County, Pa., to whose lineal descendants it has since belonged.

No. 68. Miss Frances A. B. Walton, 109 West Second Street, Moorestown, N. J.

One antique knife and fork box, about 1810.

One bedspread, 1820.

One white homespun bedspread with tufted fruit, flowers and birds, with monogram and date, 1820.

Two framed embroideries, about 1810. Two round framed landscape and figure embroideries, silk on satin.

Sewing table, 1760.

Camlet cloak, prior to 1776.

Ship case, 1795.

No. 69. Susan N. and Anna B. Warrington, 68 East Main Street, Moorestown, N. J.

Two pairs of gold sleeve buttons, 1808, B. L., made by Nathaniel Coleman, a silversmith of Burlington, N. J.

Two cut glass saltcellars, 1809.

Two glass lamps, about 1818; among the first imported from England.

Round box, with silver band; Nathaniel Coleman, September 14, 1797.

One silver mulberry spoon, about 1877.

One silver pap spoon, 1697.

One small silver spoon, E. E., 1782.

One silver dessertspoon, H. E. to E. Coleman, 1727.

One silver cream pitcher, B. L., 1808.

No. 70. Mrs. Joseph H. Wills, 229 North Third Street, Camden, N. J.

Book, bound volume of "Rural Visitor," July 1810-11.

No. 71. Miss Caroline B. Zelley, Moorestown, N. J.

Wedding ring, 100 years old, silver, Rachel Haines Dudley.

Rising sun bed quilt, made by Caroline Borton Davis, when 7 years old, while her parents were on a religious visit to Ohio, being gone three months. The school teacher planned the pattern.

Two small samplers.

One large sampler.

Warming pan, carved handle.

Wash bowl and pitcher set.

Three coverlids.

Rush rocker.

Andirons.

Washington base platter.

Colonial Room.

Highboy, from Mrs. Hooton.

Bureau, Miss Cadbury.

Corner washstand, Mrs. Ridgway.

Blue toilet set, Mrs. Zelley.

Glass, Miss McKeen.

Table, Mrs. De Cou.

Sewing table, Miss Walton.

Cradle, Mrs. John Hopkins.

Doll's cradle, Mrs. W. R. Lippincott.

Bed quilt, Miss Walton.

Table cover, Mrs. Lee.

Colonial mantel, Miss Elizabeth Lippincott.

Colonial glass, Mrs. Alfred Darnell.

Fireplace fixtures, Mrs. William R. Lippincott.

Candlesticks and snuffers, Miss Walton.

Chairs, Miss Hollingshead.

0 014 206 126 0